PROTECTION OF COMMON PROPERTY. NON-COMPLIANCE CLEANING FEE.

Contractors must ensure that common property is properly protected from soiling or damage when undertaking all approved works.

This includes the mandatory use of drop sheets and temporary plastic sheeting taped to the floor in corridors, lift floors and lobbies wherever debris or construction materials will be transferred through the building. These measures must protect the entire floor surface i.e. from wall to wall. If available protective lift wall covers must also be installed by building management in a designated lift BEFORE work can commence. Contractors may not commence work if lift covers have not been installed.

Contractors must adhere to all instructions regarding the protection of common property as instructed by building management.

You're required to ensure your contractor always understands and adheres to these conditions. You also remain liable for any damage caused to common property.

A $300 cleaning fee will be levied per incident on each occasion common property is not properly protected. This includes, but is not limited to, failing to install drop sheets and temporary plastic sheeting in corridors, lifts and lobbies or ensuring lift wall covers are installed before commencing work. This fee will be deducted from your bond. Additional charges may apply for repairing damage to common property.
